Fully Fenced

Built In Robes

This great example of a Hunter Valley inter war home offers you a piece of East Maitland character in a Blue Chip Locale. Buyers will be quick to recognise the potential to add enormous value in this prime pocket of this much sort after suburb.

Further features of the home include:

- Loads of original features of the era including original timber floors, ornate cornices, deep skirting boards, original doors and the original fireplace which is now fitted with a combustion wood fire
- Modern upgrades offer NBN connection, air conditioning, ceiling fans, built in robes to the main and an open plan layout
- Free standing garage with single car port attached

Located in one of East Maitland's blue-ribbon streets, the home is set on an open 850 sqm block and the property offers future scope for a renovation, extension or a complete rebuild to give it a new lease on life.

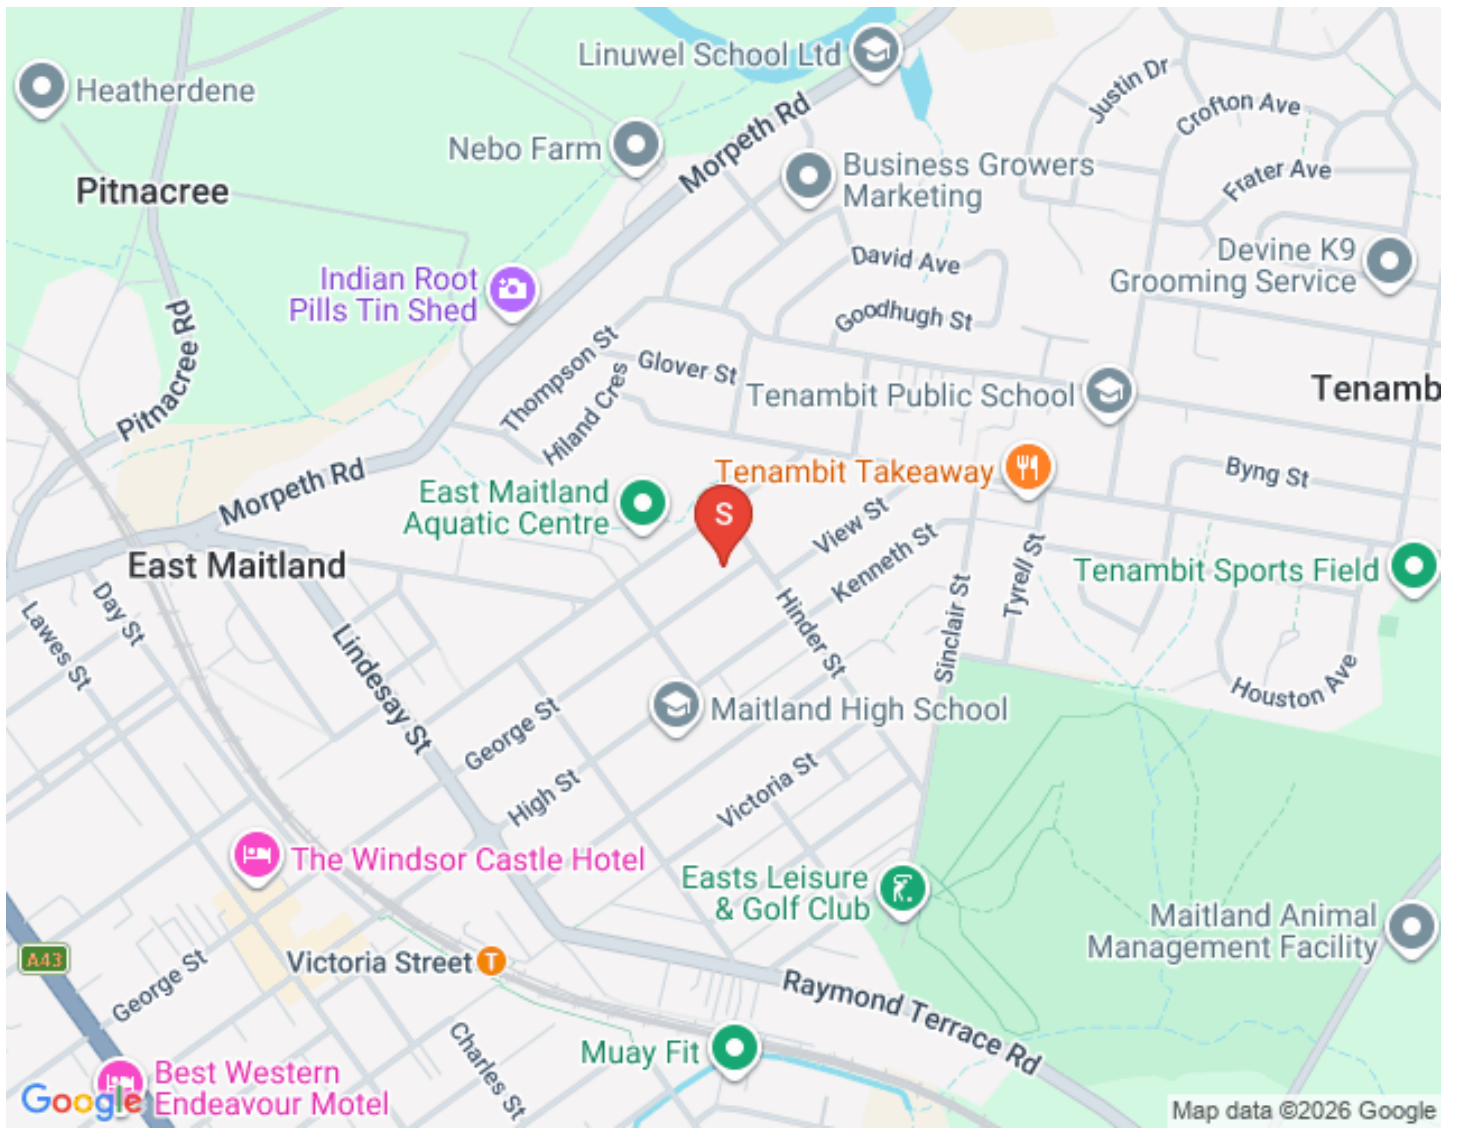

This peaceful neighbourhood is also within a brief level stroll to East Maitland or Tenambit

Shopping Villages, both Maitland Grossmann and Maitland High schools and a selection of public and private primary schools. Quick Maitland or Newcastle CBD access is easy via the New England Highway and entry exit points of the Hunter Expressway and access to The Valley or Sydney is a breeze.

This property is proudly marketed by Michael Haggarty and Andrew Lange, contact 0408 021 921 or 0403 142 320 for further information or to book your private inspection.

About East Maitland

Around East Maitland

East Maitland and the bordering suburb of Greenhills is home to the area's largest shopping centre in the district Stockland Greenhills, as well as a thriving main street shopping precinct. It's one of the region's most central and liveable suburbs and the largest by population in the Local Government Area. A plethora of heritage homes are found in this area with the original plans for the Maitland area to feature East Maitland, as the CBD. The historic William Street with its sandstone St Peters Anglican church, East Maitland Court House and Maitland Goal all aligning down this tree lined avenue.
